

Man and Woman of the Year

Nomination Form

Criteria

The Awards were created to honor exceptional Latino/a individuals for their achievements and contributions to Merced County. Each year the MCHCC seeks out and recognizes the best and brightest stars in Merced County. Considerations for these Awards include, but are not limited to a person who:

- Has performed continuous outstanding volunteer community service over an extended period of time.
- Has been active in community affairs in recent years.
- Has been active in more than one aspect of community service.
- Has provided service and/or contributions to his/her community outside of his/her business, profession, or vocation.
- Has demonstrated a high degree of cooperation in community and civic causes.
- Has contributed recognizable leadership by inspiration and example in community affairs.
- Has contributed to furthering the wellbeing of the Hispanic community.
